PERSONAL BITE

UPSTAIRS/DOWNSTAIRS –SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Jenny George is Dean of the Melbourne Business School. She joined the School in 1998 directly from PhD studies at Stanford University, USA. After a number of years as a lecturer, she moved into leadership roles at the School including oversight of part-time programs, followed by management of all academic programs, culminating in 2009 in her appointment as Dean. Her academic interests are in the area of decision modelling. Jenny is married to Matthew Williams, an Anglican minister who leads St James Old Cathedral, West Melbourne.

Any time you have responsibility in an organisation it can be hard to let ego take a back seat, especially when society expects a leader to take charge and be larger than life. Jenny will be sharing some personal insights into the difficulties and rewards of servant leadership.

JENNY GEORGE
